THE Journal for the audiology profession

Advertising information

2019

BSHAA People is BSHAA's professional journal. Featuring news, comment and opinion, learned articles, reviews, job vacancies and more, it keeps BSHAA members fully up to date with the fast-changing world of audiology.

Reach them all with a display advert in BSHAA People!

Six issues of BSHAA People are published each year. The 2018 schedule is shown on the opposite page.

Around 2,000 copies of each issue go out free of charge to the Society's members and Fellows, as well as leaders across the hearing care profession.

Your ad will be seen by over 1,500 BSHAA members, representing over half of all Hearing Aid Dispensers who are registered with HCPC.

BSHAA members want the latest news and information delivered direct to their homes. They are passionate about the profession.

Our members are independent practice owners, and also employed audiologists and HCA's.

They are audiology students and associates from across the profession.

There is a 15% discount available for advertisers booking advertising space in all 6 issues of BSHAA People each year.

Find the right person to fill your vacancy

BSHAA People is the perfect place to advertise your job vacancy and all recruitment adverts are also featured on the Society's website at www.bshaa.com.

The Society website is a valuable resource for all those with an interest in audiology, as well as members of the public looking for information about hearing care, with general free-to-view information and a dedicated members' area with news, jobs, webinars, professional development materials and exclusive resources.

Together, BSHAA People and bshaa.com is the ideal print-online combination for recruitment advertisers.

Recruitment Advertising

PRINT AD PLUS WEBSITE LISTING RATES:

Full page ad in the recruitment section plus an online listing entry on the website 'Careers' page £1735 (ex VAT)

Half page ad in the recruitment section plus an online listing entry on the website 'Careers' page £865 (ex VAT)

Quarter page ad in the recruitment section plus an online listing entry on the website 'Careers' page £635 (ex VAT)

Please note: It is BSHAA policy that recruitment advertising space is only sold as a package that includes both the magazine and website and neither is available separately.

Ads will go live on the website on the same date that the magazine is published. If you require your recruitment ad to go 'live' on the BSHAA website outside the published magazine dates, there is an additional charge for this of £90.00 (ex VAT) for a Quarter Page ad or £120.00 (ex VAT) for Half and Full Page ads. Full payment for this service will be required in advance and the ad will go live once payment is received.

Terms & Conditions

ONLINE ADVERTISING

Note that only the first 50 words (approx) of your listing will show on the 'Careers' landing page. If you do not supply text as a separate plain text or Word file, we will take the text from your supplied artwork, but will not be responsible for any errors that may occur during this process. Online ads will go live on bshaa.com on the same date as the magazine is dispatched to members.

TERMS OF ACCEPTANCE

All requests for bookings are accepted at the Editor's discretion. All advertising copy supplied is subject to the Editor's final approval and any copy changes requested by the Editor must be provided at the advertisers' own cost. PLEASE NOTE that it is BSHAA policy that specific salaries or salary indications cannot be shown on recruitment ads. Any artwork submitted showing salaries will need to be amended and re-submitted at advertiser's own cost. BSHAA has an open advertising policy to enable members of the hearing and audiology communities to share opportunities. By the inclusion of a specific advertisement, BSHAA is not providing endorsement of organisations or products.

BLOCK BOOKINGS

Block-bookings invoices can be issued for the whole year or on a per-issue basis. If an advertiser cancels a block-booking part-way through the year, BSHAA reserve the right to reclaim the difference between the discounted and published full rates for ads already run during the block-booking period.

PAYMENT TERMS

Bookings must be made on the official order form attached. Invoices are issued upon magazine publication and payment terms are strictly 14 days. Interest will be charged at 5% per month for overdue accounts. All advertisements are subject to VAT.
