

Updated Oct 17

Declaration of Interests by BSHAA Council members

The Articles of the Association item 18, concerns directors of the BSHAA council and the potential conflicts of interest that may arise. In the interest of good governance and to assist the Council in these matters please could you complete and return the below form:

Name Steve Edmunds

Please complete either section A or B

Section A. Declaration of interests

Enter all appropriate information below detailing any commercial or professional interest which could come into conflict with your appointment as a director on the BSHAA Council;

1. Acting as a business consultant to Correct Hearing, which is owned by Sarah Vokes, current President of BSHAA
2. Providing recruitment services for HADs/managers looking for new opportunities and employers seeking HADs/managers for their business
3. Currently in talks with a company that has launched a product that could be disruptive to the current model of assessing, testing and fitting of hearing aids. I am not at liberty to divulge the details of these discussions but will do so if I agree to help them develop their business interests in Europe.

Signed: [Signature] Date: 12th October 2017

Section B. No declarations of interests

The above is not applicable therefore I confirm that I do not have any relevant Declarations of Interest

Signed: _____ Date: _____

Please note this information will be reviewed by President, CEO and Secretary